

Discover Morton

Close to the peak district national park, Padley Wood View is just 4 miles away from the M1 for North and South travel - meaning it benefits from close proximity to both the countryside and all of the amenities a couple or family would need right on your doorstep.